Food Handler Permit

The Food and Nutrition 1 curriculum has expanded to teach the ServSafe Food Handler Curriculum, with the option of earning a ServSafe certificate and Food Handlers Permit. Within the first four weeks of class students will take the ServSafe Food Handlers Test, if they pass with a minimum of 75% they can choose to pay a $20 fee to receive a Food Handlers Permit from Salt Lake County (valid for 3 years.)

If a permit is not ordered by the cut-off date, to receive one, the student would be required to retake the food handler course through the county.

Foods Lab

Students are expected to show appropriate behavior while in the labs at all times. Students are expected to be in class on time, follow all lab rules, teacher instructions and requests, respect equipment within the labs, and clean up after themselves. Failure to do so will result in loss of lab privileges. Students will be responsible for broken items due to misconduct.

Plenty of time is allotted for each lab. Students will not receive late passes to their next class if they are unable to complete their lab within class time. Failure to finish your lab assignments during class time will result in a loss of at least half your lab points and possible loss of cooking privileges.

Absences:

Students are required to make up all work due to absences, excused or unexcused. PowerPoints and worksheets can be found on my website.
