

Welcome Back to school! I hope you all had a fabulous summer!! I am super excited to be teaching here at SOJO! Here is a little about me... I went to school at Oquirrh Hills and Riverton High! GO SILVERWOLVES! I attended college at Utah State University and was a hard-core marching band geek. I am married and have two fur babies (cats). I love all art forms whether it is dancing, theatre, art, or music. This is going to be a wonderful school year and I am excited to get to know each of you!!!

A note from your teacher

Grading Policy:

You will be graded on state standards on a scale of 1-4. The learning will be presented in a learning target.

- Beginning- You have not met the target. You are working on developing skills to meet the target
- Developing- You have not met the target. You have shown growth towards the target and are approaching proficiency.
- Proficient- You have met the target. You can demonstrate the skill or learning that is stated in the target
- Advanced- You have exceeded the target. You are well beyond the learning intended by the target. You can teach her learning to others

Late Work/ Make up Policy:

-All work that is assigned in the 1st/3rd quarter is due no later than the end of that quarter.

-There will be projects that include a class critique. If your work is not done by the critique date, you still must present what you have and share with the class.

-If there are extenuating circumstances, talk to me individually at least 1 day before the due date

Canvas- Online Assignments:

This semester we will be using canvas for our course. To access canvas type <https://jsd.instructure.com/login/canvas>. ALL assignments will be turned in digitally. This means that you will need to take an image or scan art assignments and upload them to the correct assignment. I only can see pdf, jpeg, and mp4/mov. Any other format is not accepted.

Instructions will also be on EVERY assignment online including tutorials, in case a student is sick or needs to miss class. When you log into canvas there will be a "this week" module with everything they need. You can email me individually and ask what assignment they are going to miss.

Be Prepared

It is your responsibility to make sure that you are in class, on time, and prepared to work. You should be in your seat when the bell rings. Materials that you should bring to each class:

8x11 or 9x12 sketchbook, paper, pencils, pens and your Art kit (see school supply store)

You will need your sketchbook by August 31

School Supply Store

Due to COVID 19, it is highly recommended for each student to have their own set of supplies so that sharing is minimized. Tool kits are available to purchase in the office or you can find your own. Each student will get a tool kit that the class fee provides. If any tools are lost or broken you can replace those tools at the school supply store as well.

** A current price list will be posted on the class website and outside the room. Pay all fees to office and bring me receipt to get your supplies.

Class Fee- $5 dollars- (covers for an individualized tool kit)
